he did not know whether the defendants had attempted to rob him him;
that he did not think they had, and

LAKE RESERVOIR.

Shadrach Holdaway Now Comes Forward With an Irrigation Solution.

lieve Will Solve the All Important Question.

Provo, Dec. 18 .- Now that the Utah lake reservoir question is attracting considerable attention a plan presented by Shadrach Holdaway, one of the oldhad great experience with irrigation matters and is well acquainted with the conditions of the lake and surroundings, may be of interest. Mr. Hold-away considers it the plan that will produce the greatest beneficial results and a number of Proyo citizens to whom it has been presented agree that it has presented.

merits.

Mr. Holdaway's plan is to construct a dike across the north end of the lake, about two miles south of the outlet; another dike is to be constructed through the lake from north to south, commencing at some point near Lehl or American Fork and extending to the spur of mountains west of Lake Shore, near where Lincoln Beach resort is located; this dike would be about 14 miles in length. The portion of the lake west of this dike would be the reservoir, and into it the surplus waters of Spanish

Fork river would be emptied by means of a canal at the south end, and the surplus waters of Provo and American Fork river would be emptied into the north end through canals.

Some of the advantages claimed for this plan are: (1) That the waters in the reservoir could be raised to a great level, sufficient to secure a flow through a canal from the north end of the reservoir at a level to irrigate the high lands in Salf Lake county, both on the west and the east side of the Jordan river, (2) That the surface area of the lake will be reduced nearly one half, and evaporation correspondingly reduced. (3) That the waters on the east side of the dike can be utilized in canals on lower levels for lower land in Salt Lake valley. (4) That about 64,000 acres of land on the east side of the dike can be reclaimed. This latter advantage is proposed to be arrived at by constructing a canal all along the car. proposed to be arrived at by construct-ing a canal all along the east side of the dike into which the waters of Hob-ble creek and other streams and springs and the seepage waters from the low lands on the east side of the dike will drain, and from this canal be dis-tributed in canals for the lower lands in Salt Lake Valley. COOPER DISCHARGED. C. Cooper, the Springville druggist, who had a preliminary hearing before Justice Banks of Spanish Fork on the charge of perjury, was discharged yesterday. The evidence introduced showed that he had qualified the statement made on the witness stand in Justice Boyer's court, which the complaint charged was false.

The hearing was enlivened with another verbal war between Assistant County Attorney Anderson and Mr. Cooper's attorney, M. M. Warner, in which the attorneys freely divulged what they thought of each other, and the spectators looked for an exhibition similar to that given in Justice Foote's court in Provo about a month ago, when the same disciples of Blackstone engaged in a fistic argument. Shariff Storrs arose, ready to act as referee, and some of the more sporty spectators were excitedly watching to see who got in the first blow, when Sheriff Storrs spoiled the fun by suggesting to the court that he "call them down."
Justice Banks acted on the suggestion with the result that the belligerents proceeded more diplomatically. CANDIDATES FOR MATRIMONY.
